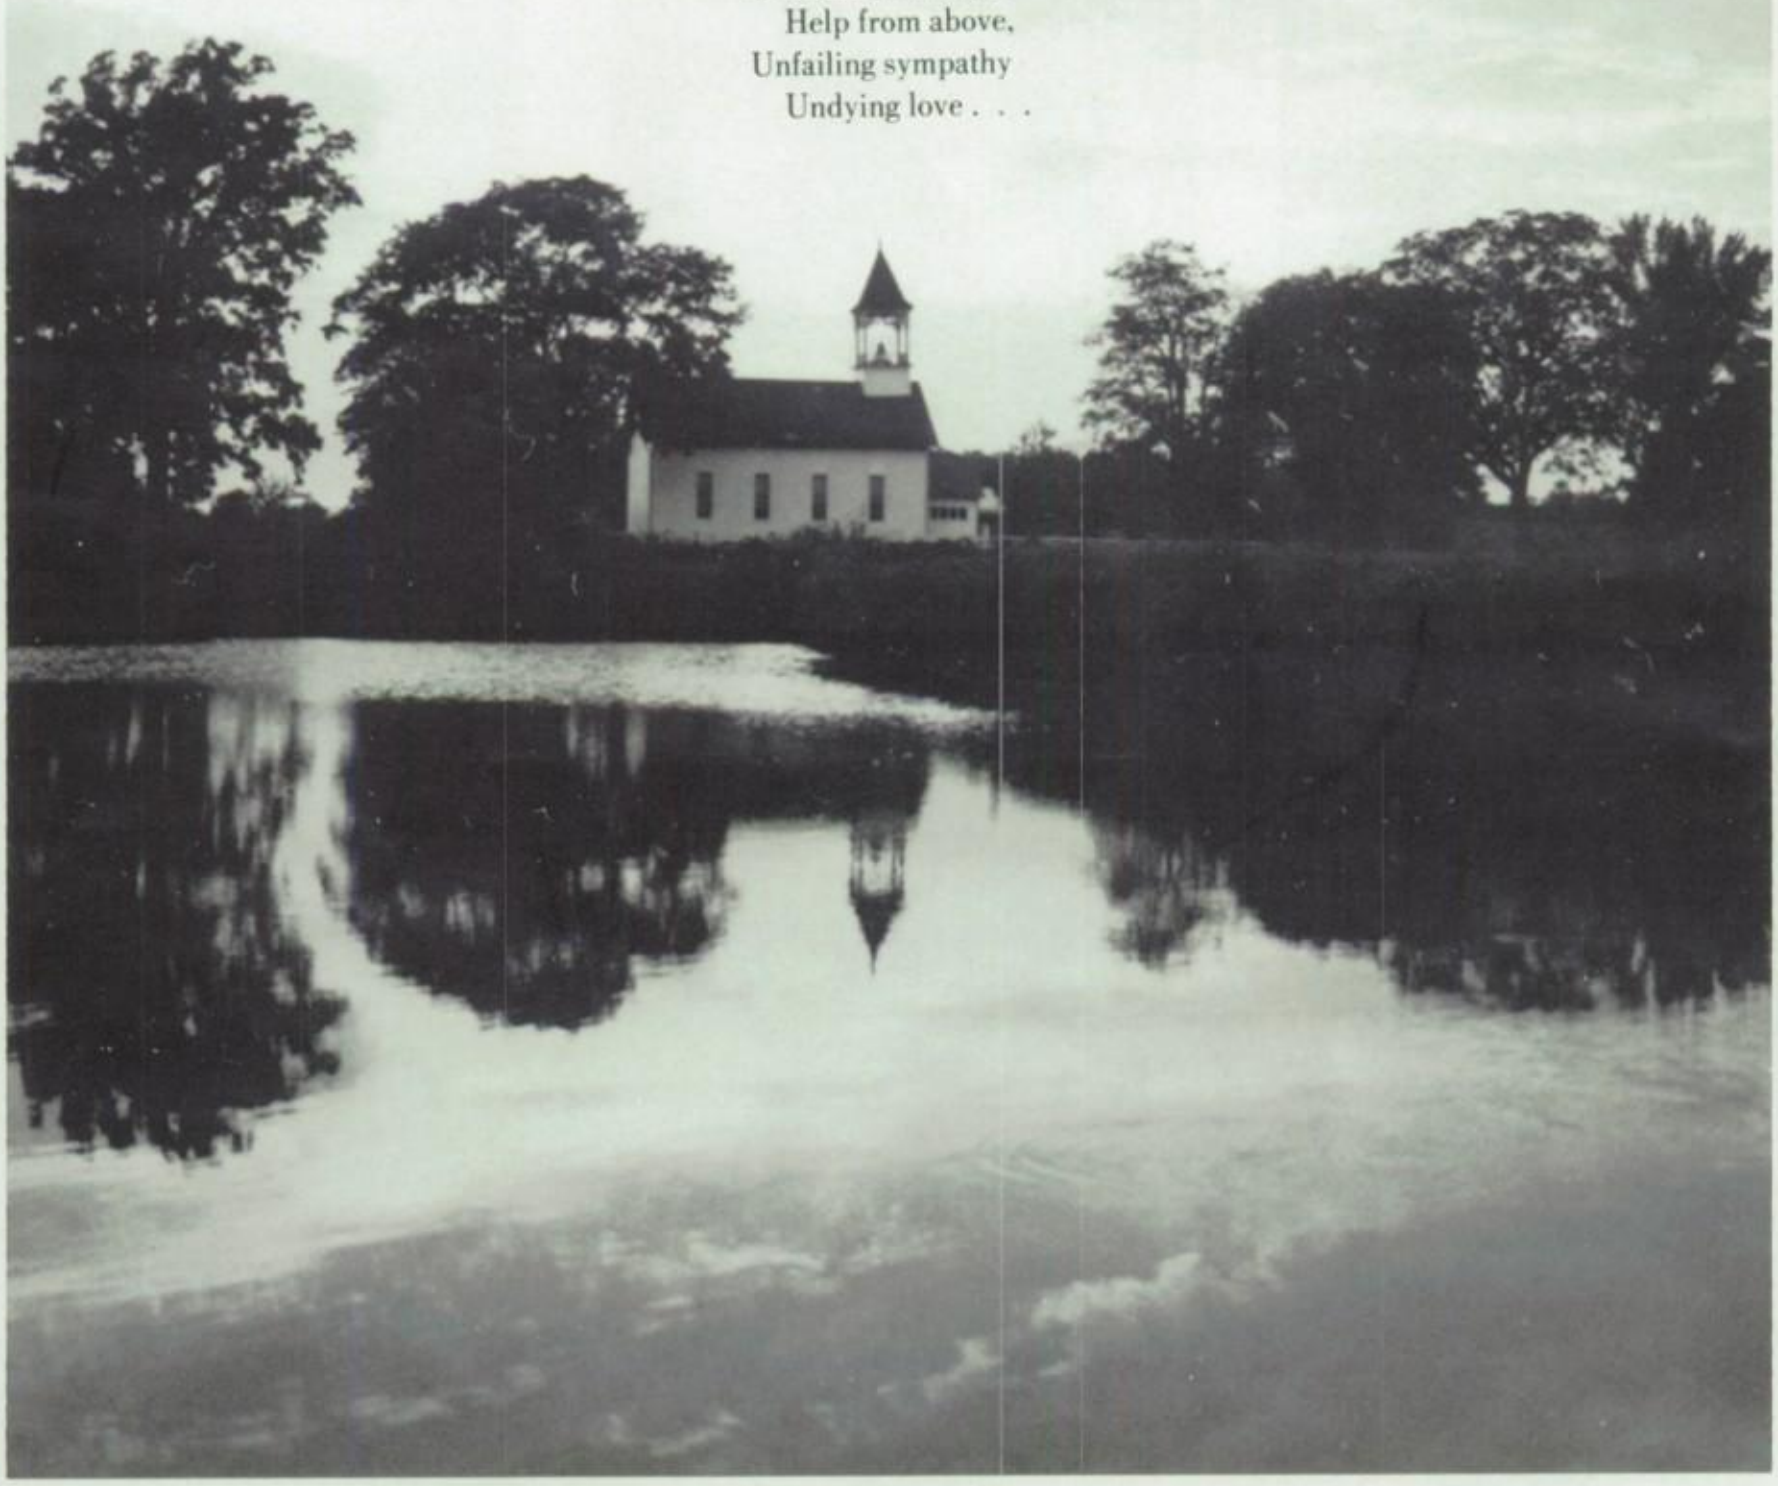
We would like to dedicate our yearbook in memory of Brad Chamberlain. Brad was a member of the Class of '79 for a very short time, but he will be remembered by all.

God hath not promised
Skies always blue,
Flower-strewn pathways
All our lives through;
God hath not promised
Sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow,
Peace without pain.

But God hath promised
Strength for the day,
Rest for the labor,
Light for the way,
Grace for the trials,
Help from above,
Unfailing sympathy
Undying love . . .



We present to you our yearbook filled with times to remember. A yearbook symbolizes the experiences of all who pass through our school. In the future these experiences may not be as clear in our minds. We have captured, in words and pictures, many of our precious memories together.

THE GRADUATING CLASS OF 1979

Some of us have gone to this school, 12 long years together.
Arlington is the only school that we have to remember.
But, some of us have come and gone throughout our high school years.
We will be leaving soon, with some of us in tears.
We will remember our athletes and records they have gotten.
A few of us have acted really kind of rotten.
Some of us will be going to college to further our education.
But, some of us will end our schooling after graduation.
Most of us will have to work from dawn to setting sun.
We might think there will never be any time left for fun.

Now, we must say good-bye to all our closest friends.
We hoped, inside, that this school year would never come to an end.
Some of us may never see each other and we'll miss you all so much.
So please try, to always keep in touch.
We hope you travel the path to luck and success,
And as you go on your way, Please don't ever forget us!

The highlight of our 1978 "All Brass" marching season this year was the 24-hour Band-a-thon. Our goal was to raise $8,000 to use for new risers, storage cabinets, and horns. Parents, friends and businesses sponsored us by pledging a certain amount of money per hour. The Band-a-thon started immediately following the Post Season Concert and lasted a full 24 hours. Although no one was sure we would make it, everyone hung in there until the end. Sore lips were enjoyed by all!!!

HOMECOMING '78

Homecoming 1978 was held on October 13; a day dedicated to the senior class. At an assembly during ninth period, five senior girls were announced as queen candidates. They were each presented with a mum and an engraved necklace.

During halftime of the Leipsic game, the band formed a crown while playing "All I Have To Do Is Dream". April Wilkinson was crowned 1978 Homecoming Queen by retiring queen Becky Businger. The night ended in a victory for Arlington: 39-14.

The following evening there was a dance in honor of the queen and her court. Music was provided by Palyce.

THE JUNIOR CLASS PRESENTS "NO MORE HOMEWORK"

Teaching is so exciting!

Midge tells the gossip!

We, the Junior Class, would like to thank Mr. Ron Dutton and Mrs. Evelyn Oates for all their help in making our play a success.

It's Betty Crocker in a nightgown.

Hey, You!

Mr. Harper reading Poetry!

Hey baby!

When Pamela Jones was elected student council president, never in her wildest dreams did she foresee having to make the thousand and one decisions required of a school principal. Should she stand behind an unpopular teacher? Should she keep the school's star athlete out of the state basketball tournament for disciplinary reasons? Should she abolish home work, as one friend suggests? These are only a few of the headaches that confront Pam and her boy friend, "Buzz" Bailey, who unexpectedly finds himself doubling as vice-principal and "home ec" teacher, with an omelette in one hand and a dress pattern in the other.

Romance kicks up its lovely heels, too, in this merry turnabout. Who would have ever guessed that elderly Miss Goodin "carried a torch" for the confirmed bachelor, Mr. Harper? Who would ever have imagined that "Tick" Tok, the janitor, would eventually dominate Mrs. Ratchet, the demon scrub lady who — everybody suspected — rode home each night on her broomstick? Or that somebody would accidentally lock a Limburger cheese sandwich in the trunkful of costumes for "Rusty Wings", the school play? All of these things — and more — keep Acting-Principal Pamela Jones in a whirl! One complication swiftly leads to another! Before long, the entire school seems upside down, and everybody is "down" on her. She even has to fill in for the lead in the school play at the last minute! Then somehow, with the return of Mr. Lundquist, the real principal, situations manage to right themselves; and Pam and Buzz and the rest of the school return to normal. Well . . . more or less!

THE ELEMENTARY

"Increased confidence in the self enables the children to secure the necessary energy and motivation to solve problems that they might otherwise give up very quickly."

Singing their little hearts out!

Where's that camera?

Would I do that?

THE YEAR IN PICTURES

M-M-M Good!

The Red Baron at work, again!

Don't worry Mom, I'm eating right!

Never Fear, I am Here!

Friendship

SUMMING UP

Our Advisor Sue Stickel

The Fall of 1978 found this year's annual staff preparing and planning for another year. The annual requires much time, energy, and imagination in order for it to be special. We feel that this year's annual has lived up to its expectations with the tremendous help and dedication of the staff, and our advisor Sue Stickel.

We would also like to take this opportunity to express our appreciation to Woodard Photographic, and Jim Hindall who have helped us obtain some outstanding pictures. Also the continuing support of our advertisers and subscribers has been vital.

We hope you as a reader will enjoy and cherish these memories throughout the years in the 1979 Arlington Yearbook.

Your Editors,
Tammy VonStein and Jane Beagle
